Five Races Head Interest In May 7 Primary Election

Polls Open 8-7 Next Saturday

OFFICIALS LIST 34 BOXES FOR DEMO PRIMARY

Milam County Democrats will vote in 34 polling places this year, following consolidation of Tracy, Bushdale, Sandy Creek and Watson Branch boxes by Commissioners Court. Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Precinct conventions will be held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday except in Cameron, Rockdale and Thorndale where the conventions will be at 7:30 p.m. The County Convention will be at 8 p.m. May 14 in the Milam District Courtroom.

A light vote is expected unless Gov. John Connally can generate enthusiasm in pleas this week urging Texans to vote and participate in precinct and county conventions.

Absentee voting was the lightest in recent history with only 26 ballots cast before the deadline Tuesday. County Clerk Wayne Wieser said 22 Democratic and 2 Republican absentee ballots had been requested by mail. Deadline for receiving those votes is 1 p.m. Saturday.

Democratic polling places will be:

South Cameron - Courthouse, No. Cameron - Yoe High Gym, Salem School, Ad Hall School, Elm Ridge School, Maysfield School, Jones Prairie Store, Baileyville Country Club, Bailey's Store in Branchville, Clarkson School, American Legion Hall in Milano, Masonic Parrish Hall, Yarrington School, Marlow School.

Also East Rockdale - American Legion Hall, West Rockdale - Rockdale Jr. School Gym, Rice School, Minerva Community Center, Gay Hill School, Sand Grove School, Davilla School, Sharp - Presbyterian Church, San Gabriel School, Crush School, Buckholts School, Burlington School, Walkers Creek School, Ben Arnold School, Marak Farish Hall, Yarrington School, Conoley School, Thorndale School, Friendship School, Salfy School.

Plans for sanitary sewer line service also were discussed embracing three sides of an area bordered by West Main St., Colfax, Batte St. and Columbus Ave. A line already is serving residents along West Main St.

Delegations led by Pete Miller and W. S. Turner advised Councilmen of pumping operations already underway in West Cameron where recent heavy rains caused considerable flooding in some residential areas. Pumps are being run by property owners to drain the area, and city legal advice saw no danger in the operation officials said.

In a long, otherwise routine Council meeting, Council:

Approved a $5 Little League lease budget, transfer of money for new equipment in the Cemetery and some stop signs for some city intersections.

Heard monthly reports from the City Secretary and Works Supt. J. B. Earle and Water Supt. Alvin Hefft, and Mayor Wilson.

Interest will center on five county and district races in the Democratic primary Saturday, May 7.

Thirty-four precincts open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. in Milam County.

State Rep. Milton Schiller, of Cameron is seeking nomination for a third term in the Texas House and is facing Fred J. Jackson of Maysfield, and Louis Patke, of Marlin.

Jackson is making his first bid for a district office. He has served two terms in the 1960s on the Cameron City Council. Patke ran unsuccessfully for state representative last term before District 27 redistricting including Falls County with Robertson and Milam Counties.

Charlie J. (Bubba) Maddox and Mrs. Mary Harper, both of Cameron, seek election in race for county treasurer. Incumbent Mrs. Ida Johns has announced she will retire at the end of her term.

Emory B. Camp, Cameron attorney, and incumbent Max McClaren seek the post of County Democratic Chairman. Both have been active in county Democratic party activities. McClaren has served as county chairman for the past 14 years. Camp was a Texas delegate to the National Democratic Convention in 1963 and is a former state representative from Milam County.

Incumbent R. H. McCasland is seeking re-election for Commissioner, 4th District, and is contested by Justin Niemtschek and Frank B. Fulton, all of Thorndale. L. C. Hoppe races Max Hiest for election as Justice of Peace, 6th District.

Running unopposed for district and county offices are: W. R. (Bob) Puga, of Waco, for Congressman, 11th District; Murray Watson, of Mart, for State senator, 14th District; Grady Allen for district clerk; Don G. Humble for county judge; Wayne B. Wieser for county clerk; and H. D. Maxwell for county school superintendent.

Unopposed in precinct races are: Lavert C. McKinney for Commissioner Precinct 2; Jess Brock for Justice of Peace Precinct 1; Jim Swartz for Justice of Peace Precinct 3; Leonard Allen for Justice of Peace Precinct 4.

In state-wide offices interest centers on the race for attorney general sought by Crawford C. Martin of San Antonio, Franklin Spears of Bexar County and Galloway Calhoun of Smith County. Martin resigned his office as secretary of state to seek the attorney general post. Spears and Calhoun are both members of the Texas Senate.

Governor John Connally is seeking a third term in a state-wide race drawing minimum voter interest. Also seeking the Democratic nod for the office of Governor are Stanley Woods of Harris County and Johnnie Mae Hackworth of Washington County.

Preston Smith seeking re-election as Lieutenant governor faces Bill Hillebrand of Van Zandt County.

Former Attorney - General Waggoner Carr and John R. (Jack) Wiloughby, of Houston, are vying for a chance to race incumbent Republican U. S. Senator John Tower in November.

Other contested state races include: Commissioner of General Land Office, Jerry Sadler and Fred Williams; Railroad Commissioner, P. S. Ervin, Incumbent Byron Tunnell and Paul B. Haring; Court of Criminal Appeals (Judge) W. E. McDonald and John F. (Jack) Onion.

Anyone heard recordings by a Mrs. Elva Miller, collected in an album entitled "Mrs. Miller's Greatest Hits"?

It is the latest and "tongue in cheek" (we hope) development in "big beat" music since Elvis Presley began the whole attack on good musical sense 11 years ago.

It is offkey, Mrs. Miller's singing, and is somewhat analogous to vocal renditions of the old Spike Jones' novelty numbers.

Thorndale Champion columnist Eloise Laurence says of the steady downpours of recent weeks:

"The rains have been regular 'frog strangles.'"

107-107-107

That was an impressive start last Friday night on the $100,000 goal of the non-profit Cameron Industrial Foundation, Inc.

Henry Siebman, CIF secretary-treasurer, announced before any of the presentations and the question-and-answer period that $23,500 had been collected or pledged, including $10,000 cash.

The third Cameron Town Meeting proved a success in the tradition of the first two, which seem to have touched off some ambitious planning in Cameron Town.

107-107-107

The new Cameron Public Library is complete, all but the moving of books. And a brief dedication and ribbon snipping will officially open the structure to public view from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday, May 15.

Construction is to begin soon on Cameron Public Airport expansion. Final okay came last week at a called Council meeting and work orders are in process.

The industrial foundation workers are making contacts among businesses at first, later a broad spectrum of the community, these things following the announcement of $23,500 in pledges last Friday before the official May 1 start.

Who in Cameron would not now be proud of their home town?

Hefft said .88 inch of rain was recorded for the city on May 1 and .77 on May 2 with a trace of rainfall Wednesday.

GOOD NEWS

Engineers Okay 2 Dams

A Cameron delegation Friday joined leaders from Williamson County in Austin at a hearing announcing 1968 construction plans for Laneport and North Fork Reservoirs.

Presentations at the Capitol Complex's Sam Houston Building outlined projections for a 1967 funding for the $32-million Laneport and $14-million North Fork projects, both on the San Gabriel flowing into Little River.

Thus began a building era in Central Texas dams to control losses costing by Corps of Engineers estimates, $1.47 million in damage and erosion per current year below Laneport, $372,000 below North Fork, and $274,000 below South Fork Reservoir.

Barring complications, funding can begin in fiscal 1967 for first construction in fiscal year 1968, officials told the audience of Williamson and Milam County leaders.

SIMULTANEOUS JOB

Col. Jack W. Fickessen, District Engineer, told a group of Taylor, Granger, Cameron and Georgetown business and civic leaders that, based on planning so far completed, he recommends simultaneous construction of the Laneport and North San Gabriel reservoirs, with the South San Gabriel Reservoir to be built later when water needs justify its construction.

Col. Fickessen said that prior to Congressional authorization of the projects, it had been agreed that the order of construction of the three reservoirs would be determined during the pre-construction planning stage.

He said the Corps' planning studies had been closely coordinated with the appropriate State water resource development agencies and that all are in accord with the decision to build the reservoirs in the sequence outlined Friday.

Congressman J. J. Pickle, who arranged the meeting and was present, expressed appreciation for the planning work done by the Corps of Engineers and said he would push for appropriation of construction funds as soon as the Corps' design work reached the point where construction could start on the first two reservoirs.

He said funds for the projects are not likely to be considered until the 1967 legislative year.

CO-OPERATION PRAISED

The Congressman also gave high praise for the spirit of cooperation between the Corps of Engineers and the various State water resource agencies whose coordinated efforts are making these projects possible.

These agencies include the Texas Water Rights Commission, The Texas Water Development Board and the Brazos River Authority, all of which were represented at the meeting.

The reservoirs will be constructed by the Corps of Engineers using Federal funds, but the costs of that portion of the reservoirs devoted to water conservation must be paid for by state and local interests.

The Brazos River Authority has indicated its willingness to assume the responsibility for paying the costs of the projects' water conservation storage space, which is currently estimated to be approximately $3 million.

Col. Walter J. Wells, general manager of the Brazos River Authority, said the payment of these costs would be met from sales of water from the two reservoirs.

Although the amount of water available will be much more than necessary to meet all present and anticipated needs of Williamson County and surrounding areas, Wells said it was expected that future needs for water in the lower reaches of the Brazos Basin could also be supplied.

The Laneport Reservoir will provide a water supply of almost 15 million gallons per day. North Fork Reservoir will supply more than 12 million gallons per day.

FLOOD CONTROL

Laneport will also be an important element in the Corps of Engineers' basin-wide flood control plan, helping to control flooding on the main Brazos as well as on the San Gabriel and Little Rivers. The North Fork project will provide flood control benefits on the San Gabriel River in Williamson County upstream of the Laneport Reservoir.

Laneport Reservoir will have a total capacity of about 244,209 acre-feet of which 162,700 acre-feet will be for flood control, 37,400 acre-feet for water conservation and 44,100 acre-feet for sedimentation. The area of the lake surface will be about 4,520 acres. In flood control operations the area may increase to 11,000 acres.

The North Fork Reservoir will have a total capacity of about 130,300 acre-feet of which 87,700 acre-feet will be for flood control, 29,100 acre-feet for water conservation, and 14,000 acre-feet for sedimentation. The surface area of the lake at the normal level will be about 1,340 acres, and may be in excess of 3,000 acres during flood control operations.

The estimated costs of the projects are $32 million for the Laneport and $14 million for the North Fork Reservoir.

Col. Fickessen emphasized that these figures are subject to further refinement as the Corps of Engineers proceeds with detailed planning of the projects.

Present at the hearing from Cameron were: Mayor Bassel Wilson, State Rep. Milton Schiller, Postmaster Narvie Caperton, B. F. Franke, Lester Williams and Frank Luecke.

DELEGATIONS

OF FLOODING

Two delegations appeared before the City Council Tuesday describing water drainage problems in West Cameron.

And the City Council acknowledged they would support either double coat penetration or hot-mixing paving on East Seventh St. east of North Jackson when property owners decide which they prefer.

Mayor Bassel Wilson also reported that work soon would begin on expansion of Cameron Public Airport. Work time would be about six months, he estimated.

Plans for sanitary sewer line service also were discussed embracing three sides of an area bordered by West Main St., Colfax, Batte St. and Columbus Ave. A line already is serving residents along West Main St.

Delegations led by Pete Miller and W. S. Turner advised Councilmen of pumping operations already underway in West Cameron where recent heavy rains caused considerable flooding in some residential areas. County Republicans To Hold Primary In Cameron, Rockdale

The Milam County Republican Executive Committee has made final preparations for holding a primary election on Saturday at the Party's polling places in Cameron and Rockdale. James E. Lacey, County Chairman, reported early this week.

The GOP ballot will list eight candidates for statewide office and three for local Party offices.

Luckey said that although there were no contested races, he wanted to urge all Milam Republicans to come out and vote in the primary since that was the best way to help create a two-party system in Texas.

Milam County voters may cast their ballots in either the Cameron or Rockdale voting box, whichever is more convenient to them.

The GOP polling places are located in the Rockdale High School canteen in Rockdale and in the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall in Cameron.

The top candidate on the Republican ballot is, of course, Senator John Tower, who is running for re-election to the U. S. Senate. He will face the winner of the Democrat primary in November.

Next on the statewide slate is T. E. Kennerly, a prominent Houston attorney, running for Governor. Kennerly is well known and received substantial votes in 1962 and 1964 races as a candidate for other statewide offices.

Kellis Dibrell, another attorney of San Antonio and Seguin, is the candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

Other statewide candidates are Robb Stewart, for Attorney General; Rudy T. Garza for Comptroller of Public Accounts; Lawrence Deffen Gilmer for State Treasurer; Albert B. Fay, a Houston oilman for Commissioner of the General Land Office; and Jack Garrett for Commissioner of Agriculture.

The three candidates for local Republican Party offices are: Jay M. Jones of Rockdale for County Chairman; Lloyd Albertson, Cameron, for Precinct Chairman, Precinct No. 1; and J. Estel Johnston, Rockdale, for Precinct Chairman, Precinct No. 16.

Luckey said that precinct conventions will be held at the voting places in both Cameron and Rockdale shortly after the polls close at 7 p.m. Saturday. At these sessions delegates will be named to attend the County Convention, scheduled for 7 p.m. Saturday, May 14th, and which will be held in the Commissioner's courtroom at the Courthouse in Cameron.

Tidy Campus Help Texas Parks Provide Better Recreation Areas

AUSTIN
The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department reminded the outdoor recreation-minded thousands now hustling into the wide open spaces than any money saved from policing up after the funmakers goes right back into the fund for providing better facilities.

And this could be a tidy sum, stated a Department spokesman since litterbugs cost all levels of state government well into six figures each year.

State parks personnel devote a substantial part of their time cleaning up after the guests, particularly after weekends.

"It doesn't take too much carelessness in all the 58 state parks to create a tremendous operational total," noted the spokesman. "It means machinery and labor and more time than could be imagined to pick up trash and garbage."

Parks have provided receptacles in the more popular areas but even then the very nature of wrappings for present day food, drink and confections oftentimes frustrates the folks who are trying to cooperate, according to Department field men.

Paper wrappers for this and paper containers for that are picked up by the same breezes that waft perfumed exhilarating air from the greening landscape. When that is multiplied by hundreds of thousands, the combined result means hours of gathering it all into a truck after the crowds depart.

Parks personnel suggested that

Tension Causes?

Here's 5 Helps
COLLEGE STATION

What causes tension?

Tension is a rather uncomfortable complaint that most everyone suffers at one time or another.

"A little tension is a good thing, because it keeps us on our toes," says Mrs. Patsy R. Yates, Extension family life specialist at Texas A&M University, "but too much can be dangerous." Tension that persists over a period of time can set its victim up for a serious breakdown.

There are many ways that tension can be relieved. Mrs. Yates recommends some of the following solutions based on certain basic rules have been developed by mental health experts:

(1) Tired of the same old routine week after week? Live a little, the experts say-vary your routine. Go to a good movie or read a good book.

(2) When the children have been noisy and impossible all day, and you've had all you can take, try to refrain from lashing out at them. Instead, release that pent-up energy in some physical activity - like scribbling on already cleaned floors.

(3) Preparing in advance common emergencies such as unexpected guests for dinner is a great tension-reducer. Coping with minor crises without fuss conditions you to face bigger ones calmly.

(4) When you have several important things to do, by all means get the worst done first. Putting things off-especially if you dislike doing them-builds up stress; having something pleasant to look forward to reduces it.

(5) After dinner, your husband often spend an hour or so putting around in the garage. Should you go see what he's doing and perhaps help him? No, say the experts. Companionship is important for a happy marriage, but in today's families, there's often too much "togetherness." Everyone needs some time to himself, to think, to dream maybe just to unwind emotionally without fear of setting on someone else's nerves.

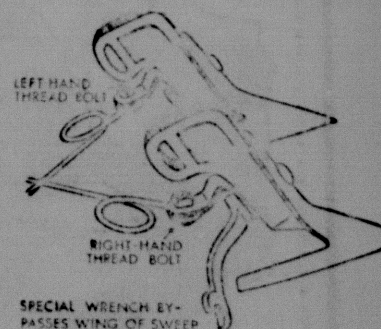

About 190,000 men, women and children will be saved from cancer this year. Most of them, according to the American Cancer Society, because they saw their doctors in time for prompt treatment.

Some 14,000 women died of cancer of the uterus last year. Nearly all the deaths could have been avoided if the women had had an annual "Pap" test by a physician, according to the American Cancer Society.

Lung cancer killed 47,000 men and women in 1965. About 75 per cent of these deaths could have been avoided if the patients had not smoked cigarettes, according to the American Cancer Society.

The local 24 team association entered 17 teams in the annual tournament.

thly?

A. Yes and can be made over a three year period.

Q. Will money bear interest?

A. It will be invested but it is non-refundable.

Q. Will CIF employ professional help in seeking an industry?

A. We hope to make some contact with professionals who guarantee to produce and do not plan to hire someone other than one with these qualifications.

Q. How many industries have shown interest in Cameron during the past year?

A. An estimated 15 to 20 that we know of.

Q. Will leading farmers be invited to join and serve on the board?

A. Yes, they will be encouraged to join, and will be then eligible for board directorship.

Q. Can a group of employees at an office contribute collectively and vote as such?

A. Section II of the CIF constitution and by laws was quoted on ways money can be contributed.

Q. Do you plan to solicit friends in rural areas?

A. Yes, all the way to Dallas.

Q. To whom are payments made?

A. To the Cameron Industrial Foundation, Inc.

Q. Would foundation help to locate retail stores?

A. Foundation would help in contacts and matters of this nature, but would not be able to help in financing of business.

Q. What constitutes an industry?

A. It must be a solid business deal - industry does not mean one large one necessarily, it would more probably be several smaller ones.

Q. Will manufacturer be required to repay funds received from foundation?

A. Yes, reliable industry does not want any give away - they only want one - a present and long range financing available, of course any research done by the foundation would be the CIF's expense.

Q. Will contributions of less than $100 be welcomed?

A. Will accept any amount, but for a voting membership it must be at least $100.

Q. Will businesses be asked to give according to their size?

A. Yes, the Board feels that this is the only manner in which funds can be solicited.

Q. Will other non-profit organizations be asked to give?

A. There have been several offers from clubs willing to make contributions.

Q. Once funds are met, will foundation be self sustaining?

A. Yes.

Q. How will industry help farmers or ranchers?

A. Industry will share many of our community expenses including taxes, and certainly growth of this community will help insure a future for our children.

Q. Is membership limited to Cameron residents?

A. No.

Q. Will land be bought out of principal?

A. Yes.

Q. Is there any method to keep prices from rising on land being considered for industrial tracts?

A. Yes, the price would be better before an industry knows for sure they will locate in Cameron, then if we already knew they were coming and had chosen their own site. Here is where the price would tend to be higher. As long as we are not committed, we can be choosy.

Q. Will local industry be helped in expansion?

A. We have been told by experts that this is the first place to seek new payrolls, and that one of the by products of growth is local industry expansion.

Q. If CIF does not receive $100,000 will the money be returned? Will it still function?

A. If adequate amount is received - though we have outlined the needs for $100,000 and think this is what we need or we would not have set the goal for this. We will function if we possibly can. Cameron cannot afford to have a second rate foundation. We must have a first class operation to catch on and get in the running.

Q. Is there a step by step plan ready to follow as soon as enough funds are available?

A. Yes. We must purchase a site and secure the developments necessary on it there will be promotion and advertising. A building reserve fund will be created, and the most important aspect is the functioning of an industrial team. The team will be composed of several men, individually well versed and expert on single matters in the community, such as labor taxes, utilities, sites, etc. The team will meet as a group or individually with prospects, as is called in each case. This team will be the key that turns the lock!

Q. Will this team be paid a salary?

A. No!

Q. Will industrial buildings be taxable?

A. Yes, I think we should all understand fully why there is a need to go into obtaining sites and financing for industrialists. Some prospects will spend time in selecting a few towns and the actual decision is made by a higher official who then tours the towns under consideration, if a town does not have these things, most times they are excluded and only the ones who are more nearly ready are considered. Even a good solid corporation wants a co-operating partner in a town, an interest from a town if they're locating in that town.

Q. Is straight donation tax deductible?

A. For business only.

Q. Is farmer considered a business?

A. Anything classified as business would probably be acceptable. However, not being internal revenue men, we cannot give you an individual ruling.

Q. Where's the dotted line?

Q. If anyone is ready to give, do you have a blank check?

A. Yes.

Spring Cleaning

Old Fashioned

COLLEGE STATION
Spring house cleaning is old-fashioned, says Mrs. Doris Myers, Texas A&M University Extension home management specialist.

A good home manager will rotate cleaning jobs each week or each month. She thus avoids ever having to do a total cleaning job at any one time.

"This practice will keep the house looking presentable throughout the year. You'll have more free time in the spring to devote to other important family activities," Mrs. Myers adds.

There are a few safety rules for you to remember about household products used in cleaning, however.

Be sure to read the labels on all household products, and follow instructions given. Teach other members of your family to do the same.

Do not mix liquid bleach with any other cleaning compound or a different kind of bleach. If liquid bleach is added to an acid or acid-producing material, chlorine gas may be formed. There have been several serious incidents involving use of this mixture, the specialist reminds.

Household ammonia, when mixed with bleach, produces highly irritating fumes. And an explosion may result if ammonia is poured into bleach, cautions Mrs. Myers.

MISS SECREST

MR. KAHLER

REPEAT VOWS

Tall candelabra entwined with magnolia leaves framed the white carnation banked altar of the Chapel of First Methodist Church, Houston, for the April 23 wedding of Miss Ruth Carolyn Secrest and Mr. Charles Norman Kahler.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Secrest, Morganton, N.C., and Mr. Kahler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Kahler of Cameron.

The bride wore a gown of candle-light peau de soie with scooped neckline outlined in imported lace and slightly belled skirt extending from an empire waist. Her veil was a French lace mantilla and she carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and a white prayer book. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Miss Nancy Secrest of Burlingame, California was maid of honor. Her A-line dress was of yellow alaskine and she wore a matching pillbox hat. She carried a nosegay of carnations, mums and roses.

Mr. Ernest Kahler of Houston served his brother as bestman.

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans and Jamaica, the couple will make their home in Houston.

The bride attended schools in North Carolina and has been a stewardess with Braniff Airlines for the past five years. Mr. Kahler received a B. S. degree from the University of Texas and presently is a student at the University of Houston and is employed at Hermann Hospital.

Judge Onion's Relatives

Manage Milam County Campaign

Judge John F. (Jack) Onion, who is a candidate for Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals in the Democratic Primary on May 7, 1966, has announced that Mr. and Mrs. Will Vogelsang of Cameron are his campaign co-chairman for Milam County in his statewide race. Mr. and Mrs. Will Vogelsang are his wife's uncle and aunt. Judge Onion is married to the former Miss Nancy Lee Vogelsang, daughter of Helmut Vogelsang, who was born and raised in Milam County and now resides in San Antonio. The Vogelsang family were pioneers of Milam County dating back to 1883 when Mrs. Onion's grandfather bought many acres of land in Milam County and later founded the Vogelsang Community. In her younger years, Mrs. Onion spent many summers visiting relatives in Cameron. Judge and Mrs. Onion have two sons.

Judge Onion welcomes the active support of Mr. and Mrs. Vogelsang as co-managers along with the help of many of the wonderful citizens of Milam County. "I'm grateful they agree with me that our highest appellate court criminal matters must be composed of Judges who will devote their full time and energies to the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals," Onion stated. "I pledge to be a full time Judge, actually living in Austin with my family, and devoting my full time to the business of the court. I further pledge that I will not use the Court of Criminal Appeals as a stepping stone to the Office of Attorney General or any other public office." My opponent unsuccessfully attempted to do this after he was on the court for one year, saying that he was tired of books, briefs and the court and wanted a more active job. My opponent never has moved to Austin and has visited his job on a part time basis.

Judge Onion recently won the State Bar of Texas Bar Poll by nearly a two to one majority. This poll is conducted by secret ballot among all the lawyers and judges throughout the state of Texas. He won a separate poll that was conducted by the Fort Worth Bar Association by a substantial majority. The San Antonio Bar Association unanimously endorsed him by resolution. The San Antonio Light, The San Antonio Express & News, and The Greenville Herald Banner have already endorsed him editorially.

Judge Onion is a native Texan and a graduate of the University of Texas School of Law. He was admitted to the Bar in 1950. He became an Assistant Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County. He is now in his 12th year of Judicial experience, the last ten of which have been spent upon the very busy 175th District Court in Bexar County trying criminal cases. He has been most active in the work of the legal profession. In 1962 he was chosen as one of the three members most deserving of recognition for their outstanding services to the legal profession by the State Bar of Texas. He is an active member of the American Bar Association. He is well known in legal circles also for his numerous articles which have appeared in legal publications from South Dakota to Texas. Judge Onion, was primarily responsible for the adoption of the first Medical Examiner's Office in Texas, replacing the old coroner system for investigation of unnatural deaths. He served as a member of the Juvenile Board of Bexar County for over nine years, and in line with his interest in law enforcement he toured the state with the Attorney General's Office to inform law enforcement officers of the changes in the New Code of Criminal Procedure. Onion is a member of the Sons of Hermann, Fraternal Order of the Eagles, American Legion and many other civic organizations. He has been active in the Community Chest, United Fund, Red Cross and YMCA drives. His church affiliation is Baptist.

Onion is also a member of an old pioneer family of Texas and is a third generation lawyer. His grandfather was a State Legislator from Smith County, subsequently from Bexar. His father was a district judge before him, and he has an identical twin brother who practices law in San Antonio. His brother-in-law, Curry Vogelsang practices law in Wichita Falls.

Members of the Gause Community Progress Club and moving ahead of schedule on their soil and water conservation activities, according to Wayne Mann, Soil Conservation Service Conservationist at Cameron. There are 19 negro landowners in the club that are serviced by the Cameron Soil Conservation Service Work Unit. Out of this number, 14 have signed co-operative agreements with the Taylor Soil Conservation District and basic conservation plans are being developed on all cooperative farms at this time. Doyle S. Smith Jr., Club President, feels that one hundred percent cooperation will be reached as soon as nonresident owners can be contacted.

This group has shown intense interest in the conservation of their land and are taking prompt action to carry to completion the plans set up in their long range basic conservation plan docket. Clyde Moore and James Taylor have recently completed stock ponds. Several farmers have applied lime to the land. Doyle Smith Jr. planted one field to coastal bermudagrass and Calvin Moore and Mrs. Janie Perry are correcting a drainage problem. Calvin also is fencing and building a pond to prepare for land use changes to be made next year. These are some examples of work that is being done now.

This group should be commended for their total effort toward community improvement and they will be recognized by their Soil Conservation District supervisors for their interest and achievement in the conservation of their land.

Too Much Rain On Potato Plants

By J. D. Moore

Many home gardeners are concerned about the appearance of their Irish Potato plants. The cause of the damaged appearance is too much rain. This is particularly true where drainage is poor.

By examining the plant, you will find a brownish discoloration inside the lower part of the stem below soil level. This is caused by an organism and there is little that can be done to correct the condition. The appearance of potato bugs were noted in some gardens. These insects are easy to control by using Sevin dust or spray.

GRASS BROWN PATCH

Many home owners have called about the unsightly spots appearing in St. Augustine grass lawns. This is caused by a build-up of the organisms that bring about the condition. The disease may be controlled by spraying the affected and immediate surrounding areas thoroughly with a fungicide containing P.C.N.B. Fungicides with P.C.N.B. include Terraclor, Acti-dione and Ortho Lawn Disease Control.

These materials should be applied as soon as the disease appears, at the rate recommended by the manufacturer in 15 to 25 gallons of water per 1000 sq. feet. This amount of water is necessary to get the chemical down to the soil level, assure good control and to prevent temporary discoloration of the grass. Repeat applications are often necessary.

Brown patch may be prevented in areas where it usually occurs by spraying these areas a short time before the disease normally appears.

There are 1,400,000 Americans, alive today, cured of cancer. The American Cancer Society says an annual health checkup is your best protection against death from cancer.

Two Favorites In One

A brand new idea in cereals—corn flakes and strawberries together in one package—is making news in grocery stores.
Through the magic of freeze-drying, Post Cereals have now packaged together these two breakfast favorites. The corn flakes stay crisp, and the strawberries are plump and juicy. Just put some in a bowl, pour on milk or cream, and the strawberries are ready to add their tart-sweet taste to the crunchy corn flakes.
Long a dream of scientists, freeze-drying now makes it possible to store perishable foods on the kitchen shelf for weeks or months. The freeze-dry process is similar to what happens when a piece of cloth is dipped in water and hung out to dry on a cold winter's day—first it freezes, then it dries. And so now we can forget the seasons and have strawberries with our cereal all year 'round!

Plan Storage For Glassware

COLLEGE STATION
You can prolong the life of your glassware by careful planning.

Properly-planned storage space for glass cooking utensils, tableware and accessory pieces helps keep them from breaking and chipping, says Mrs. Doris Myers, Extension specialist in home management at Texas A&M University.

The glassware should be stored according to frequency of use and at the first place of use.

Tableware should not be crowded together or stacked. When there is breathing room between glasses, pieces cannot bump against each other. Space allowed between glassware will also allow them to be easily seen, reached and grasped.

To preserve the original beauty of the glassware, line shelves with felt or paper to provide a cushion.
Never stack glasses or cups two or three deep.

Following this rule will keep glassware easily accessible.

Store like dishes or glassware together, avoiding having to reach into the back of the cupboard.

Do not store and forget your glassware. Rotate it as you use it to avoid over use of a few pieces.

Use upright racks to store plates, saucers and platters. Use hooks to hang cups. This will save storage space and encourage you to use all of your glassware and china.

Flower bowls and vases should have a shelf all their own, arranged by height, with the tallest in back and the shallow in front.
They should be separated from the rest of your dishes and placed on a "seldom-used" shelf. This will help save valuable shelf space needed for more frequently used dishes, says Mrs. Myers.

SHOTGUNNERS DON'T AIM

You can improve your shotgun shooting by forgetting all about aiming.

A shotgun, except when rifled slugs are used, was never meant to be aimed. Your shooting will improve by simply pointing the gun at the target.

New W-4's Needed After May 1
For Employee Payroll Program

AUSTIN
"Under the new income tax withholding system to go into effect May 1, employers will need up-to-date information from employees," according to R. L. Phinney, District Director of Internal Revenue.

"Therefore," he continued, "employees will be asked to complete for employers a new Form W-4—Withholding Exemption Certificates."
Phinney emphasized that there is neither an increase or decrease in taxes; that the new withholding system was designed so that income tax withheld from wages would more nearly meet a taxpayer's yearly tax bill.

Taxes on wages will be withheld under the new system at six graduated rates: 14, 15, 17, 20, 25 and 30 percents. The pre-scent withholding rate is a flat 14 percent but makes no allowance for the minimum standard deduc-tion or marital status.

Nearly everyone will need to fill out a new W-4 form for the new withholding system. Present income tax withholding is based only on amount of salary and number of lawful exemptions claimed.
The new system not only includes these factors but takes into account marital status. Tax will be withheld at different rates for single and married persons.

The new law also requires married persons to file a new W-4 form showing they are married if they want the lower withholding rates which apply to married taxpayers. Otherwise, tax will be withheld at the higher rates for single persons.

Persons with income not subject to withholding, such as dividends or interest, may want to claim less exemptions than they are entitled to or have additional dollar amounts withheld from their paychecks so that enough tax will be withheld to meet their year-end income tax bill.

Document No. 5642, an IRS fact sheet which explains the new tax withholding system will help employees determine how many lawful exemptions to claim on the new W-4 form.

The fact sheet, which includes the new W-4, is available from employers and Internal Revenue Service offices, and contains tables which show the amount of tax withheld on wages up to $200 a week, under both the old and new withholding systems.

OUTDOOR TIPS

ROD STORAGE

When storing fishing rods, either stand them up straight in racks or hang them by their tip-tops from the ceiling.

Never lean them against the wall as this will cause the rods to bend. If there should be unusual heat in the room, rods, particularly fiberglass ones, will take a permanent set.

This set can be removed with a slight application of heat, but the process will only weaken a good rod and eventually cause it to break.

HANDY TAPE

Scotch brand tape No. 310 is a must for every tackle box and hunting kit. You can use it to tape on rod guides and tip tops, patch minor leaks in boots and waders, and mend rips and tears in canvas tents, coats and boat covers.

This particular brand sticks tight and is water resistant.

BUY ROOMY WADERS

When buying waders or hip boots be sure the shoe portion is a size larger than you normally wear.

That additional space allows for an extra pair of socks to be worn. It'll also make room for wiggling toes to stimulate circulation in cold weather.

Buy chest-high waders with large chest size so they will fit comfortably over bundlesome winter clothing.

AG OPINIONS

Even under the new Criminal Code, habitual violators of Texas traffic laws will not be able to protect their driver's licenses from being revoked by pleading no contest to charges. So ruled Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr.

In other recent opinions, Carr held that:

Wilbarger County Hospital District may pay for land acquired to establish a community center for mental health and mental retardation services out of a building bond issue or district tax levy.

Tax bonds of Texas junior colleges districts are not eligible to secure deposits of state funds, but revenue bonds are eligible to extent provided by statutes.

County clerks in misdemeanor cases have authority to issue arrest writs to any peace officer.

Wilbarger County Hospital District bonds are not acceptable as security for state deposits.

Some Wonderful News

Williamson and Milam Counties heard some long awaited news about Laneport and North Fork Reservoirs on the San Gabriel last week.

Plans were announced for final effort to begin for funding both reservoirs in the 1967 fiscal year for simultaneous construction starts in 1968.

Once completed, this would mean fantastic prospects for flood control, lake recreation and industrial water resources in the Milam - Williamson County area.

Funding would be on a continuous annual budget basis until the two are completed sometime in 1972. A third reservoir would begin about 1969 on the South Fork of the San Gabriel, also near Georgetown.

Ultimately, there would be no more overflows in the Little River basin, which, below the proposed Laneport site, would mean annual savings of $1.47 millions in erosion and crop losses. Engineers estimate this is now the annual loss below the site and on into the Brazos River.

Cost will be about $32 million for Laneport, $11 million for the North Fork project.

Unanimity was apparent, though few Williamson County leaders voiced disappointment at the sequence of construction which had been agreed upon by Corps of Engineers, Cong. J. J. Pickle, Cong. W. R. Foage and the state water agencies involved.

It has been some 18 years since plans for Laneport were instituted. Such long terms for such major projects are not unusual, simply because of the immense implications of their construction.

What will a 4,500-acre plus lake (estimated 12,000-acre lake at floodtide) mean to Williamson County and by proximity to Cameron and Milam County?

One can best answer by seeing the immense impact of Belton Reservoir, the imminent Stillhouse Hollow Reservoir in Bell County, Lake Waco in McLennan County, and the numerous control lakes in Travis County around Austin northward into Burnet County.

Fifteen million gallons of water will be available for irrigation and industrial purposes just 20 miles southwest of Cameron and but a few miles from San Gabriel. Possibilities are limited only by imagination.

Cameron representatives were delighted at the prospect, and a spokesman said so.

In drought or flood, such is a boon to this part of Central Texas.

Work, Results And Promise ...

Cameron's third Town Meeting was a success in that some 30 questions drew rapt attention of some 125 persons asking and good answers from the Cameron Industrial Foundation directors.

Some inspiring comments apparently caused the last question to be: "Did anyone bring some blank checks?"

The reception, the response gave ample reason for Cameron area residents to hold their heads high to know this town of tradition is on the move, that airport is approved, that library is about to open, that streets are building, that planning is well underway.

Here is progress, result of hard work, and promise of hard work ahead. It is a privilege to see such development.

CANCER'S DANGER SIGNALS

The American Cancer Society says everyone should know cancer's seven danger signals. They are: 1) unusual bleeding or discharge; 2) a lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere; 3) a sore that does not heal; 4) change in bowel or bladder habits; 5) hoarseness or cough; 6) indigestion or difficulty in swallowing; 7) change in a wart or mole. If any of those signals lasts more than two weeks, see your doctor at once. The faster they come to the physician's attention - the more lives can be saved.

FARM MARKETING RECEIPTS

Texas farmers and ranchers received $400.0 million during January-February from the sale of all crops and livestock and livestock products, reports the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. Cash receipts from all marketings were up 18 percent from the same two-months period in 1965. Crops accounted for $292.2 million and livestock and livestock products $107.8 million to make up the total for the January - February period.

SAFETY WITH PESTICIDES

The use of chemicals in agriculture and around the home will increase as warm weather settles in for the summer. Jack Price, Extension leader, agricultural chemicals, warns that the misuse of pesticides can result in poor insect control and cause unnecessary hazards to humans and crops. His advice-buy the right chemical for the job and then use it according to the directions of manufacturer.

Connally Favors State Pay Hike

By Vern Sanford

Next year's legislative session may see state employees battling as hard for a pay raise as school teachers.

Furthermore, help is assured. Gov. John Connally says that "substantial pay raises for state employees" will be among his "strongest recommendations" to law makers.

Indications are that the pay boosts could run as high as $17,500,000 a year.

According to Connally, state government is slipping farther and farther behind in its efforts to keep qualified workers - not only in the lowest pay levels but in higher brackets of professional personnel.

Connally says that:

More than 7.8 of the 51,000 state employees (not including those at colleges and universities) make less than $3,000 a year, the federal "poverty line."

Turnover is running 30 per cent per year.

Lower-bracket hospital aides get as little as $193 a month.

There are 313 vacancies in the hospital system, 77 in parks and wildlife operations, 100 in the prison system, 135 in the patrol and 148 in the Texas Education Agency.

"If we do not reverse the trend," warns Connally, "not only will the stability and efficiency of our operations be threatened, but we will also weaken our entire system of local government and responsibility."

Salary issue promptly was injected into the governor's race.

Stanley Woods, Connally's opponent for the Democratic nomination, chided the governor for not having spoken out on the subject before election time.

Woods' ticketmate, State Rep. Bill Hollowell, running for lieutenant governor, said Connally should submit the raises to an immediate special session of the Legislature rather than waiting eight months until the regular session opens.

GINNERS FIRST ON CONTROL LIST?

Texas' new nine-member State Air Control Board now has held its second meeting since Governor Connally named the group, whose purpose it is to protect the public from air pollution. Indications are that Texas' more than 1,300 cotton gins will be the first area subject to air control rules and regulations.

Conclusions after a year-long study of pollutants caused by cotton gins is that smoke emitted from burr burning contain significant quantities of arsenic and tars. These poisons, along with gin dust, have contributed to the 20 to 30 per cent increase in complaints about respiratory diseases suffered by downwind residents during ginning season.

Also, there have been adverse effects on trees and vegetation downwind from arsenic and other evidences of pollutants.

Report states that much of the increased pollutants from the gins are caused from an increase in trash - leaves, limbs immature bolls, and dust - picked up by mechanical harvesters. Recommendations for curing these problems will be in the report of the Board's staff.

WATER QUALITY COSTS GOING UP

Taxpayers, as well as the men who run the sewage treatment plants in growing cities, must get used to the fact that in the future they are going to have to maintain high standards of operation of their plants. Higher quality water means higher cost of treatment.

This came out in the Texas Water Pollution Control Board's meeting when the City of Dallas objected to a doubling of the Board's usual chlorination requirement, arguing it would cost more than it would have been worth.

Dave Smallhorst, the Board's executive secretary, said: "The cities, including Dallas, have to recognize the fact that an increase in water quality requirements is going to mean an increase in cost." Smallhorst said chlorination is necessary to protect public health and the Board's first concern is the health of the public.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

Now that cities have stopped denouncing farmers for getting Federal subsidies, which occurred about the same time the cities started getting some themselves, I was pleased to read an item I ran across in a newspaper last night.

According to it, an official in a big city has come out with a proposal I could kick myself for not thinking up years ago. His idea is that, since the Federal government wants to help the cities out financially, and apparently every city in the nation needs help, or will take it, which is nearly the same thing, once they get used to it, the best way to handle the distribution most efficiently is to "provide a lump sum to every city based on population," and then - and here's the kicker - "let these amounts be without strings for the cities to use in any manner they deem best in their local wisdom."

Why didn't us farmers think that up? It's one thing to get a check from the government, but invariably there's a bunch of rules and regulations tied to it. You've got to plant that much, or you've got to keep the weeds off the unused part, etc., etc.

How could Washington know better than I what ought to be done out here on this Johnson grass farm? Always insisting on some kind of bureaucratic interference. Then coming around to make sure you've complied.

Depend on the cities to outsmart us.

Of course, it should have been done a long time ago, the sensible way is to just turn the money over, whether it's a city or a farm and let everybody work out his own problems without any outside advice.

The next time us farmers need a new farm program, if we're smart we'll get somebody in town to help us write it.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

DIPLOMATIC POUCH

T. A.

San Pedro, Cal.

Dear T.:

Enclosed is a copy of the Oath of Renunciation of United States Citizenship. You may be interested in knowing that this is the only acceptable form by which a United Citizen may renounce his citizenship. Also, an American can not renounce his citizenship in the United States, but must do so in a foreign country.

I had always thought understanding was a two-way street. Not realizing that no one can do this without compassion and tolerance for the other human being. A case in point: Rhodesia, the U.N. and the African delegate. I still remember the anger on the African delegate's face, as he stood up in the U.N. There don't seem to be many men of wisdom in the world today. And without wisdom and compassion and understanding the two-way street, which should be the U.N., will be just another dead end street.

A. B.

Bronx, New York

Dear Mrs. B.:

There are five major pillars of United States policy toward Africa:

1. Self-determination for all African countries;

2. Encouragement of the solution of African problems by Africans;

3. Support of improved standards of living through trade and aid;

4. Discouragement of arms build-ups beyond the needs of internal security or legitimate self-defense;

5. Encouragement of other Free World countries to recognize their continuing responsibilities toward Africa.

U.S. policy toward Southern Rhodesia is based on these five general principles and is aimed toward independence for Southern Rhodesia as a nation with a government based upon the consent of the governed. The United States Government considers that a political solution acceptable only to the minority in Southern Rhodesia, and prejudicial to the interests and rights of the vast majority of the population, would only lead to instability and would be inconsistent with the principles of the United Nations Charter.

As Ambassador Goldberg said at the United Nations Security Council on November 12, 1965: "a small, stubborn and sadly mistaken minority has seized sole power in an effort to dominate the lives of the vast and unwilling majority of the population of Southern Rhodesia. Defying the stern warnings of the sovereign authority, the United Kingdom, this white minority regime in a desperate, and what will certainly prove to be a futile gesture, has unilaterally declared the independence of Southern Rhodesia, not in the interests of a majority of the people upon which a genuine declaration of independence might depend, but in the interests of a privileged minority, making this a spurious declaration of independence."

Bar Favors Onion

For Criminal Court

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vogelsang of Cameron have been named Milam County campaign co-chairman for Judge John F. (Jack) Onion, candidate for Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals in the Democratic primary.

Judge Onion's wife is the former Miss Nancy Lee Vogelsang, daughter of Helmut Vogelsang, formerly of Milam County.

Judge Onion has practiced law since 1950, was an assistant Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County and has been Judge of the 17th District Court the past 12 years.

Judge Onion has been unanimously endorsed for the state judicial post by the San Antonio Bar Association and received a two to one majority of ballots in favor of his candidacy in a poll of the State Bar of Texas.

The American Cancer Society estimates that about 255,000 died of cancer last year. Many of them could have been saved if they had seen their doctors in time. The society says: "Don't forget that annual health checkup!"

TAKE YOUR PROBLEMS TO CHURCH THIS WEEK

Millions Leave Them There!

My PRIVATE MOVIE

There was a day last summer that I kept tucked away in the back of my mind, like a miniature mental movie all my own. Sometimes, when other days aren't quite as bright as this one was, I take it out and reel off a private showing.

It was a Sunday. We'd been to church. Lee and the three children and I. Then we went home and packed up a big picnic lunch and took it down to the creek. It was one of those perfect summer days poets have written about. Everything tasted better than it could possibly have been. When we'd finished eating, the kids sailed their boats while Lee and I stretched out on the grass and looked up in the blue silk sky, all dotted with fleecy white clouds.

We didn't say anything, but I know that we were both thanking God for all the blessings he'd bestowed on us. I know that we were feeling, just then, particularly at peace with ourselves, and with the universe. I was thinking, too, of our kids as they'd come out of Sunday School that morning, with their bright faces glowing, and I gave a silent vote of gratitude to my parents for having raised me in the Church. Now I was able, in turn, to pass on this priceless heritage to my own children. In this high pressure, jet-propelled age we're living in, we need so much to guide our children in the right way. Without the aid of the Church I, for one, would be at a total loss—and that afternoon I realized it, with particular emphasis.

I suppose, when you come right down to it, we really didn't do so much, that Sunday. But it was a day that left me with a feeling of family unity, of togetherness . . . I shall never forget.

Sometimes, when things are "at sixes and sevens," a parent needs to take time out to remember just how precious a family is. Whenever I find myself in danger of forgetting—I just dust off my movie and live that Sunday all over again, to myself.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

SHACKLING THE ACCUSED

His wrists imprisoned in handcuffs, the accused man sat awkwardly at the counsel table. He remained shackled while the witnesses gave their testimony, while the lawyers gave their arguments, and while the jurors gave their verdict.

"Guilty."

But when the defendant's lawyer appealed to a higher court, the guilty verdict was thrown out. The court held that, unless there is a special need for it, to shackle a defendant in the courtroom is to deny him justice.

For it is a cornerstone of our legal system that every man must be presumed innocent until proven guilty. And the presumption of innocence may well fade at the sight of handcuffs, silently implying to the jury that "this man is evil."

So repugnant is the use of shackles in court that they are improper not only for the defendant himself but also for his witnesses. Even if a witness is brought straight from jail, he ordinarily must appear unfettered -- so the jury will give a fair hearing to his testimony.

Still, shackling of an accused man may occasionally be justified by unusual circumstances in a particular case.

For example, Handcuffing of two defendants was held proper after one of them had assaulted several members of the jury and the other had heaved the witness stand chair at the prosecutor.

In a murder trial, there was good reason to fear that members of the defendant's cutthroat gang were planning to invade the courtroom and snatch him from custody. Here, too, handcuffs were allowed.

As a rule the matter is left to the discretion of the trial judge. But his discretion must not be abused. In another murder case, the judge permitted the defendant to be tried while wearing prison clothing, with "COUNTY JAIL" printed in large letters across the back.

Although the man was found guilty, a higher court decided that the label on his back was as wrong as handcuffs on his wrists. Granted a new trial, the court said: "The presumption of innocence requires the garb of innocence."

Outdoors In Texas

By Vern Sanford

Wise outdoorsmen retard the weather reports regularly.

They know that sudden weather changes have a great influence on our outdoor creatures. And they put these to their advantage.

A sudden drop in the barometer, for instance, often prods fish into hitting.

Some of my most memorable fishing has occurred just before a front hits. Usually, fishing also is good just afterwards, when conditions are settling back to normal and the barometer starts its rise again.

Getting in on the fast action often calls for timing things just right. There is a flurry of activity before the front hits. But once it arrives you may as well stop fishing.

However the situation will change within a day or two after the front has passed through.

A striking example of this came during Texas eliminations for the World Series of Fishing, held on Granite Shoals Lake (now Lake LBJ) in 1963.

On Friday and Saturday the contestants had fairly good fishing, but on Saturday night a cold front moved in and fishing was all but dead on Sunday.

Many outdoorsmen realize this about fishing. What they fail to understand is that it often works equally well with wildlife.

I remember the opening of deer season a few years back. It was a warm, still day. But, despite the high temperatures, deer were up and about all day. Even toward mid-afternoon, when the temperature was pushing the high 80's, many deer were feeding out in the open.

Next day a severe norther hit. Deer kill was nowhere as good as it was opening day. But a few days later, when things started warming up again, the deer came out on mass as they had just before the front hit.

Our wild creatures, both fish and fowl, have some sort of built-in weather predicting device. They know when nasty weather is coming and they get ready for it. If it looks like a severe front that will drop the temperature or perhaps bring heavy rain, they'll start feeding to store up for the lean days ahead.

Once on a fishing trip on the Llano River, I noticed hundreds of wasp nests scattered along a rock overhang on a bluff. Black and red insects were swarming everywhere. Next morning, when I walked down to the river, I noticed the wasps were inactive. They were bunched on the nests. Not a single one was flying about.

At the time I wondered if maybe this meant the weather was to change.

Sure enough, late that evening a front moved in, bringing severe thundershowers. These wasps knew the change was coming. And they were ready for it.

A few years back, on a warm October morning, I went squirrel hunting. On the way out I heard on my car radio that a front was moving in. It was not a bad front, but it was enough to drop the temperature somewhat and bring light rain.

By the time I reached the woods, there was a lead-gray overcast from horizon to horizon and a light mist was falling. But instead of driving the squirrels into hiding, it had just the opposite effect. They were everywhere in the treetops. I've never had better squirrel hunting, any time, anywhere.

My deer hunting friends who make regular annual trips into Colorado tell me that one of the best times to hunt mule deer is just before a cold front moves in, triggering snowfall. Cold weather prompts the annual migration into the lower country. Hence, the deer are on the move and consequently more vulnerable to hunters.

Then there was the time on the famous YO Ranch near Kerrville when a sudden front had dropped temperatures and brought rain. It wasn't a severe storm. Just enough to plummet the temperature into the lower 40's and really start the deer moving.

As we drove through the pasture that day we counted numerous bucks. Yet on the previous day we'd driven the same route and spotted very few.

Weather changes influence animals in different ways, depending mostly on whether it is a severe, moderate or mild front.

A severe front might prompt active feeding before it hits. But poor hunting results after it arrives. Then animal activity picks up again as the temperature starts to warm.

A moderate front might keep wildlife more active for a longer time in the day. Normally, deer are up early in the day, bed down during midday, then come out again in late evening. A moderate front may keep the deer moving all day, even after it has arrived.

A mild front may only serve to keep the animals up for perhaps an hour longer in the morning, then bring them out again an hour early in the afternoon.

But despite what it may do, weather can be the outdoorsman's best friend or worst enemy, depending on what he does with it. By observing weather changes and watering what changes they bring in the outdoors scheme, you can use such future changes to your advantage.

Rain is bemoaned by most fishermen. But not by those dedicated to the sport. They know that it may bring some discomfort, but often the very best fishing is to be had during a rain storm.

Skilled outdoorsmen learned long ago that they must cater to the whims of fish and wildlife, not vice versa.

DESIRABLE ANSWERS.

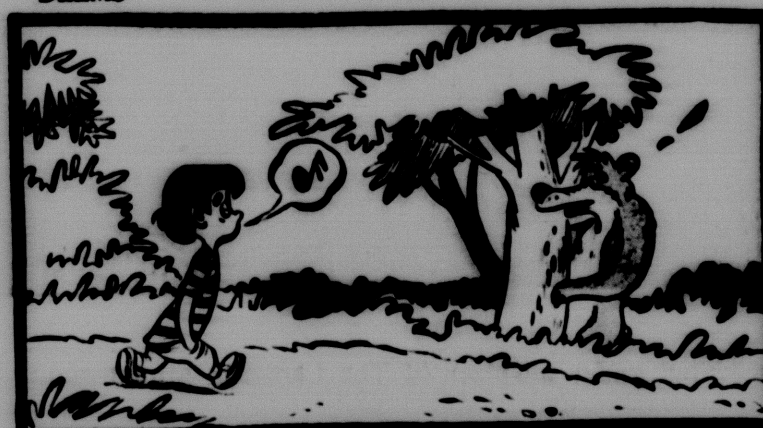

If you are to be different, you will have given YES answers to all questions except 9, 10, 13, and 18. If you answered YES to these questions, you are TOO daring for the following reasons:

- A conscientious care of money, without being a slave to it, shows good judgement. Careless use will land you in trouble.
- Do not live a self-centered life or you may find yourself alone and forgotten.
- Laws, even signs, are made for a good reason. If you said yes, you are not daring to be different, but challenging authority which was set up for your protection.
- If you said yes, you are using your "difference" as a front, very likely a shield for some feeling of insecurity. "An unlearned carpenter of my acquaintance once said, 'There is very little difference between one man and another; but what difference there is, is very important!'"

CARD OF THANKS

The many courtesies and favors which were rendered to my family and myself in our recent bereavement have been greatly appreciated. I especially am grateful to Bro. Lafferty, Mr. Carson, Mrs. Gordon Baskin, the entire staff of the Cameron Nursing Home who made many untiring efforts to make our loved one comfortable.

Mrs. B. G. Rice and family

Also thanks to the nursing staff in Cameron Nursing Home, Dr. Richardson, Sisters and nurses in St. Edward Hospital, Brother Ronnie Woolery and Greens Funeral Home.

May God bless each of you.

TIME TO MOVE IN

Dr. C. M. Patterson, Texas A & M University Extension veterinarian, believes the time is at hand for Texas swine producers to move forward in the campaign to eradicate hog cholera. The number of cases confirmed last year in the state was only 3 and the state is dropping behind other states in the federal-state program of eradication, he said. Action now, he adds, may head off a lot of trouble later on.

NO CONTROL FOR ROOT ROT

No chemical has yet been devised which satisfactorily controls root rot on ornamental plants, advises Wendell Horne, plant pathologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. He suggests that home owners use plants which are tolerant or resistant to the disease.

Our good conservative politicians are asking for our good conservative votes on May 7. We can help these good candidates and ourselves much more by building them a strong conservative political party in Milam County.

The only way to do this is to cast our votes in the Milam County Republican Primary May 7. Think it over, neighbor. You may vote Republican in the following places: for South Milam County, Rockdale High School cafeteria; for North Milam County, Methodist Fellowship Hall, Cameron.
